

REQUEST FORM – DATA DELETION

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), you have the right to have your personal data deleted or removed from our systems. Though you can make the request in any format you choose, you may use this form. We will process your request in accordance with the GDPR.

Please be aware that if you request to have your personal data deleted, there are specific reasons for which we may decline your request and your personal data will continue to be processed.

You have the right to have your personal data deleted in the following circumstances (please circle the appropriate boxes):

- Where you feel your personal data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which we originally collected it;
- Where you no longer consent to our processing of your personal data;
- Where you object to our processing of your personal data as is your right under Article 21 of the GDPR;
- Where you feel your personal data has been unlawfully processed;
- Where you feel we are subject to a legal obligation that requires the erasure of your personal data;
- Where you are a child, you represent a child, or you were a child at the time of the data processing and you feel your personal data was used to offer you information society services.

We will do our best to respond promptly and in any event within one month, whichever happens to be later, of the following:

- our receipt of your written request; or
- our receipt of any further information we may ask you to provide to enable us to comply with your request.

Please note that in certain circumstances we may not be able to erase the information you requested in accordance with Article 17(3) of the GDPR, where erasure may, would, or could:

- adversely affect the freedom of expression;
- contradict a legal obligation;
- act against the public interest in the area of public health;
- act against the public interest in the area of scientific or historical research; or
- prohibit the establishment of a legal defence or exercise of other legal claims.

In such cases you will be informed promptly and given full reasons for that decision.
